

ESCMID

| | AMS Programme Observership |
|---|--|
| Institution: | Hospital Universitario Virgen Macarena · Department of Infectious Diseases |
| Type of institution: | Teaching hospital |
| Responsible: | Pilar Retamar-Gentil <pilaretamar@hotmail.com> |
| Description of the department and profile of competence: | Infectious and Clinical Microbiology Department with a very active Infection Control Team and a multidisciplinary Antimicrobial Stewardship Program with more than 10 ten years of experience. We have already mentorship many residents and visitors so far. |
| Description of your AMS programme: | We have an online empiric and targeted treatment guideline that we renew every time a need or new evidence come out. We are a multidisciplinary team (infectious diseases, pharmacist, microbiologists, surgeons, pediatricians, intensive care physicians, allergologist..) We have a daily audit and advisor program in all hospitals ward regarding antimicrobial use and prophylaxis. We have also a Bacteremia an OPAT program. |
| What can the trainee expect: | A trainee can join any section of the program as an observer. The trainee can get involve in daily activities and will learn how to work in a multidisciplinary team, how to program, how to control results. |
| Description of mandatory rules for providing access: | Infectious Diseases, Microbiology and Pharmacology background. |
| Language of the conducted observership: | English, Spanish |